

Al-Anon Information written for Professionals

Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism is a small magazine that is published each year. It encourages potential newcomers to attend their first meeting. It is also a resource for healthcare professionals who refer clients to Al-Anon Family Groups.

We hope that you will join the rest of our fellowship by ordering and distributing copies of this magazine in places where people who need the Al-Anon program will find them.

Order deadlines are in Feb. and July of each year for delivery in September. Order forms are in the back of Forums and online at <http://www.al-anonfamilygroups.org>

Please join other members in “carrying the message” to those still suffering from someone else’s drinking.

If you would like to write an article for Al-Anon Faces Alcoholism, please refer to Articles from Professionals Guidelines on this website. You are encouraged to write your experiences for an upcoming magazine.
