

To the Reader

I asked for help twice in the same month to 1. tidy up my bedroom and 2. tidy up our Al-Anon Group's plastic storage containers and make some newcomer's packs. It's only taken me 10 months of the year, but not only did it help me, it also helped them.

If you need help this holiday season, don't wait. There are many members available for calls to 'reason things out'. You need only ask and it won't only help you, but them too!

Love in service

Area Newssheet Coordinator, Kirrily

PS. Stay safe over the holiday season, look after yourself and keep coming back in 2026!

“Friends of Lois” DAY

The winner of the Shoe Throwing Competition was Libby from Canberra! Lois W threw a shoe in anger at Bill W and said, “Damn your old meetings”, hence our competition at our special day. Thank you to all who attended and our very own Lois (Faye).

“It was a beautiful day, very powerful shares. The day ran smoothly, so much love, help and support, gorgeous people and of course yummy food. A smaller room made it much more intimate. About 48 attended and a couple of newcomers who brightened up the meeting with their newly found experience of gratitude, hope and laughter...” Anon
